My Voice My Culture

This week, we take a step towards healing,
A journey to mend the wounds that have been revealing,
The scars of past injustices, the pain of neglect,
The tears of our people, forever left.

We acknowledge the mistakes of our past,
And vow to learn from the lessons that will last,
We'll work towards a future where all are free,
Where respect and equality are the keys to be.

Through listening, understanding, and empathy too,
We'll bridge the gaps that have been built anew,
And forge a path where reconciliation can thrive,
Where love and forgiveness can be the way to survive.

Let us walk together, hand in hand,
With open hearts and minds, to a brighter land,
Where every Australian can live with pride,
And our nation's spirit is one that's united inside.

This poem aims to acknowledge the past injustices and painful history of Australia's Indigenous peoples, while also highlighting the importance of reconciliation, healing, and moving forward towards a more inclusive and respectful future.
